1 Image, 1 Minute

Contemporary artist Micol Hebron has organized “1 Image, 1 Minute” events in multiple cities since 2008, in which invited participants select a significant photograph that they discuss for 1 minute. The inspiration for the 1 Image 1 Minute column in X-TRA magazine was a similar project produced by Belgian director Agnès Varda (and later written about by Rosalind Krauss) for French television in 1983. Over 200 people have participated thus far. You can view the 2012 Los Angeles event here - http://www.ustream.tv/channel/1-image-1-minute-october-9th

Choose a photograph (preferably made after 1970) that is of significance to you and identify it below. Write a paragraph (about 150 words) on this image, and its significance. Copy or print a reproduction of the image, and paste it below.
