

Photo 1

Name _____

History of Photography

You earned _____ out of 10 possible extra credit points.

Rear Window Extra Credit

View the movie Rear Window and answer the following questions.

Where does the movie take place?

From whose point of view do we see the narrative unfold?

What do the other apartments and their occupants symbolize? What does Jeffries's camera symbolize? What cinematic devices does the filmmaker use to suggest this?

What critique about the photographer and the practice/ process of taking photos does the movie offer? In other words, what does the movie say about the act of photographing?
